Nestled in a family friendly neighbourhood and ever so close to Harristown State Primary and High schools, Concordia College and Toowoomba Base Hospital, this character gem offers many opportunities. Add to this the position being within moments from the Toowoomba CBD, this home is packed with potential. With inner city living becoming more popular and the property's location being so convenient this property is packed with growth potential. Classic features including high ceilings, ornate ceiling rose, sash windows, and picture rails are highlighted in the living room which flows through to an inviting eat in kitchen. The kitchen is light & airy and fitted with quality cooking appliances and plenty of bench space to ensure that even the most fastidious of chefs will enjoy cooking in this well-functioning kitchen. Three bedrooms, two with built-in robes and a neutral palette throughout. The family bathroom has a light and fresh feel to it with a traditional clawfoot bath, brass tapware and shower over the bath combination. Outside is an alfresco timber deck that overlooks the private back yard and where you can relax while still overseeing the kids playing. With rear yard access there is a single lock up garage.
