This home embodies meticulous craftsmanship and attention to detail. Every square inch of the property has been maintained very well. Its enduring quality ensures it will remain just as stunning in many years as it is today. Immerse yourself in the inviting ambience of the wood-burning fireplace and the comfort provided by the air conditioning. The living areas are thoughtfully designed, offering a bright, open, and family-friendly atmosphere. From the gleaming polished grey gum timber floors to the expansive rear entertainment deck, this home caters to the most discerning of buyers. Why settle for anything less than perfection when searching for your dream home? We invite you to explore this residence meticulously. Bring your magnifying glass and inspect every corner - you'll find nothing amiss. The owners of this home have poured their hearts and souls into it. Now, you have the opportunity to enjoy the fruits of their unwavering dedication and hard work. The property's generous 714 sqms (approx.) block presents outdoor freedom for the family. Or consider development opportunity (STCA) in this well-serviced pocket close to village shops, excellent schools and Eastlink, with a direct walkway through to Eastmont Pre-school further along to St James Catholic Primary, The Vermont Store coffee spot and Vermont Secondary College across the Centre Rd pedestrian crossing. What a superb location this is, spoilt for shopping and restaurant choice at Eastland, Brentford Square, Forest Hill Chase and the newly upgraded Westfield Knox.
