This classic Victorian terrace exudes timeless charm, blending classic architecture with contemporary convenience in a leafy pocket of East Redfern that is just a short stroll to Surry Hill's trendy café and bar scene. With a stunning arching canopy of mature sweetgums at the front door, this wide-fronted double storey terrace, that has been tightly held in the same family for over 50 years, offers an exceptional opportunity for lifestyle buyers. This impressive Victorian terrace is ready to move into but there is also scope to update or redesign, including an attic conversion (pending council approval).
