Renewed in all the right places, this exciting 3-bedroom opportunity delivers the style where you want it and the space where you need it in a remarkably central location. A neat frontage inspires the imagination with what could become of its front yard, opening into a well-zoned living and dining layout stretching over carpeted floors into a renovated Smeg and Bosch kitchen, swooning the home chef with high style and quality. Sliding doors from the dining room reveal a rear yard continuing the front yard's blank canvas appeal, primed for an entertaining deck or terrace with plenty of room for the kids and dogs. The three bedrooms are perfectly zoned for peace and quiet, served by a full-sized laundry, a separate toilet and a fresh bathroom. Complete with split-system air conditioning, it sits in one of the suburb's most accessible locations, a short distance from either major shopping centre, Rowellyn Park Primary, Sandfield Reserve, and public transport, with freeway access a short commute away.
