Discover the extraordinary at 78 Mokine Road, Narrogin – a property that transcends the ordinary, offering a unique and fully established haven. This exceptional estate unfolds on a meticulously crafted block, revealing a captivating blend of functionality and charm. Nestled within this enchanting landscape are two self-contained 1-bedroom, 1-bathroom granny flats, adding an element of versatility to the property. These thoughtfully designed living spaces not only provide comfortable accommodation but also offer a touch of individuality, creating an ideal setting for extended family, guests, or potential rental income. As you explore the grounds, you'll be captivated by the presence of multiple sheds, each serving a distinct purpose. These structures not only amplify the property's functionality but also cater to a myriad of possibilities, whether it be for storage, workshops, or creative endeavors. The seamless integration of water and power connections throughout ensures that every corner of this space is as practical as it is picturesque. This property is more than just a residence; it is a harmonious blend of convenience and natural beauty. Whether you are drawn to the prospect of self-sufficient living, yearning for a serene retreat, or envisioning a space for creative pursuits, 78 Mokine Road offers a canvas of possibilities.
