Sold before going to market, for off-market opportunities, feel free to contact Ken Yan Welcome to a haven of sophistication and style! This 4-bedroom residence has undergone a stunning transformation, marrying timeless elegance with contemporary flair. The heart of this home is a chef's delight, featuring the original kitchen that adds a touch of character. With ample work areas and state-of-the-art stainless steel appliances, it's a perfect blend of functionality and charm. Step onto brand-new hybrid floorboards that exude modern elegance throughout the home. The entrance welcomes you with a lush new front artificial turf, setting the stage for a charming and low-maintenance outdoor space. Every inch of this home has been freshly painted, unveiling a canvas of neutral tones that perfectly complement the contemporary aesthetic. Experience the epitome of comfort with ducted air conditioning seamlessly integrated throughout, ensuring a climate of pure bliss in every room. The enchantment continues outdoors with an enormous fully fenced backyard, a haven for relaxation or family play. Nestled in a tranquil street, this home is a mere 50-meter stroll to local parks and schools. Bask in the beauty of nearby beaches or explore the vibrant Joondalup shopping area and the flourishing Somerley/Clarkson shopping center—all just moments away.
