From the road this cottage may appear small in stature - but looks can be deceiving! Upon opening the gate you will discover a fantastic front yard offering complete privacy from the road with direct access to the garage. Entering the home you immediately notice the sheer depth of scale and realise it's larger than you would have assumed. Features include but are not limited to: - Three bedrooms, two of which are very large. If you wished to reconfigure you could have two bedrooms, two living. The choice is yours.- Completely updated kitchen with quality appliances - Eight solar panels for cost efficient energy - Multiple heating options - Separate dining opening onto the kitchen - An exceptionally well thought out back patio area for those summer nights entertaining friends and family- Beautiful easy care gardens out the back with multiple chill out zones, a wonderful sanctuary to sit and relax A stunning and well executed full update on this 1940's bungalow will be sure to please it's new owners. With such a short stroll to the towns hub where you won't want for anything or across the road to the popular Somerset beach or if it's to jump on the nearby public transport - this much loved home is perfect for the first home buyers, couples, singles or investors. Currently tenanted 'till 29/07/2024, please allow minimum 48 hours' notice for private inspections. There is so much to like here.*Harcourts Burnie has no reason to doubt the accuracy of the information in this document which has been sourced from means which are considered reliable, however we cannot guarantee accuracy.
