Set privately back from the street and capturing cooling breezes, this beautifully presented high set home offers a welcoming, relaxed atmosphere with clever renovations maximising every inch of space! What you will love: - The upper level captures views from every room, with an abundance of natural light showcasing crisp clean lines highlighted by polished timber floorboards. - Two bedrooms including a master bedroom with renovated en-suite, built in wardrobes and air-conditioning - The upstairs also boasts an open plan living area and a private entertainer's deck.- The lower level has been masterfully refurbished and modernised to play host to the ultimate home office/dual living opportunity. With a kitchenette and bathroom installed. The Location: Located in a highly sought after position, within walking distance of the waterfront, residents will appreciate the convenience of local cafes, restaurants, eateries, and shops just metres away. Close proximity to Wynnum train station allows quick trips into the CBD, universities, hospitals and the South Bank precinct, while enjoying the unique Bayside lifestyle. A great selection of local and private schools and child care facilities are a short distance away.
