Imagine starting your day with a leisurely stroll to the local café, followed by a walk along the pristine beaches nearby, while the children enjoy themselves at the local park or just play at home in your expansive back garden. Welcome to the ideal family lifestyle! This 4-bedroom, 2-bathroom home is impeccably finished both inside and out, offering outstanding accommodation and versatile entertainment options. It features a spacious open-plan living area and kitchen with a serving window that opens onto a beautifully decked outdoor space. The home boasts stainless steel appliances, a large timber island bench with breakfast bar, a designer laundry tailored to accommodate a growing family, split system and wifi controlled ducted heating, and a smartly designed master suite with a frameless shower screen and a fully tiled ensuite. Ample parking space is available, along with a workshop/gym area that can easily be converted into a teenage retreat. Located just a stone's throw away from Edithvale General Store and within easy walking distance to Edithvale Recreation Reserve, local shops, golf course, train station, a choice of immaculate beaches, excellent schools and the Edithvale Family and Children's Centre. Everything you need is right at your doorstep. Contact Michael today to schedule your viewing or join us at one of our upcoming open house inspections.
