"Little Mooney Homestead" 3.22 Hectares (8 acres) bordered by Little Mooney Creek, Brisbane Water National Park, and Konda Road, offering 7 completely clear and beautifully maintained paddocks, hardwood post and rail electrified fencing and automatic water to each paddock. There is a level exercise paddock, also suitable for stables. Ground drainage is excellent with the home carefully situated to enjoy a well-drained yard all year round. Gardens are fully irrigated using bore water. Stunning exotic trees are a feature of the property. The home is approached along a London Plane tree lined driveway and is single level, full double brick bagged construction with vaulted ceiling and fabulous light throughout. Large main bedroom has full ensuite and walk-in. There are two additional large bedrooms and all three bedrooms have sliding door access to external covered verandahs. There is a study or 4th bedroom included. Kitchen, bathrooms, and laundry are all in pristine condition. Adjacent to the home are two lockable garage complexes and a double high carport for horse trailers. One shed is 3-bay lockable with three roller doors and the other is a 3-bay lockable garage with 2 car spaces plus workshop and separate shower/toilet/HWS. At the rear of one is a 3-bay covered area for farm equipment. This north facing, solar passive designed home offers a 5-star energy rating with great comfort in all seasons. A central wood combustion fire provides warmth in winter. The property exudes tranquility, peace and privacy. We would love to show you through!
