Centrally located in the heart of New Town is the stunning 1915's Federation home close to Jackman and Mc ross bakery and a short stroll to the prestigious Friends school. Upon entering, you'll be greeted by a formal entryway adorned with stunning stained-glass features, polished floorboards throughout with the master bedroom being luxuriously spacious with room for a home office, also offering breathtaking views of Kunanyi Mount Wellington from the original stained glass front timber window, this room also retains its original features, including an open fireplace. There are two other generous bedrooms, one of which boasts floor-to-ceiling built-in robes, while the other features an open fireplace. The high ceilings throughout the property are beautifully complemented by picture railings, adding a touch of elegance. The heart of this home is the light-filled kitchen, which also includes a butler's pantry. The living areas seamlessly flow, and French doors open up to a low maintenance private courtyard garden, perfect for relaxation and entertaining. A family-size bathroom with a separate toilet and powder room caters to the needs of the household. The laundry is conveniently located at the rear of the home, with an additional toilet and easy access from the secure driveway. For additional storage, there is a tucked-away garden shed. The property is fully fenced, offering security and peace of mind. The front entry is also fully fenced, creating a safe and welcoming environment. 79 New Town Road is a delightful property that combines historical charm with modern comforts. Its central location, character-filled features, and practical layout makes it an ideal home for those seeking a unique and convenient lifestyle in the heart of New Town. Conveniently located on the city's fringe, close to local cafes, schools, major supermarkets and just a short distance from the vibrant North Hobart strip and CBD, this classic home in the heart of New Town is a home awaiting its new owners.
