Your chance to secure a prime position in Mansfield's exclusive Stoneleigh Park Estate. It's a short drive to High Street, but a world away from the busy tourist traffic. You really can have the best of both worlds, the space and beautiful vistas of country life with the convenience of living in town. Children will be able to ride their bikes to school and their ponies or motorbikes at home! The block is fully fenced, titled, and ready for you to build your dream home and enjoy a beautiful outlook no matter which direction you face. The block is mostly level and backs onto a council reserve and Owens Creek. There is sealed road access and power and NBN available for connection. Rural living zoning and approved building areas allow you to design and build your dream home with ease. Plenty of room for your dream home, sheds galore, chooks and a few horses.
