The locals know it as the "Pink House", this fairy-tale home is hidden amongst cottage gardens & mature trees, you would hardly believe you are located within in the centre of town. The 2 bedroom home is filled with old world charm featuring VJ walls, decorative stain glass, breeze way wood work, 9 foot ceilings & hoop pine floors. Upon entry is the landing a lovely spot to enjoy the easterly breezes. The sitting area has a wood fire heater ideal for the up & coming cooler months while the lounge has air conditioning. The kitchen is of good proportions with gas cooker & dishwasher. Features 2 full sized bedrooms, both have French doors opening onto the private front veranda, while the sleepout possibly 3rd bedroom leads out to a built in veranda currently set up as a dining room. A centrally located bathroom with shower over bath & separate toilet services up stairs while an internal timber staircase leads to downstairs laundry with 2nd shower & toilet. Plenty of secure storage under the home with room for tools & tinker space. Set on a 1108m2 corner block, fully fenced, there is 2 street frontage & 2 carport. Located opposite the recreational sporting fields & a 2 minute stroll into all Laidley's amenities. This property is defiantly going to capture the heart of those who desire a character home, come & live your own fairy-tale here.
