Are you a shed man? Are you a Renovator? Are you an Investor with an eye on future development? Or Are you an animal lover? A space lover? Here is a great property for all or any of you! Just on the edge of town is 5 flat acres with a four car garage – front and rear roller doors, powered, lights, RCD's in its own switchboard. The house is sad and lonely, having once been loved but well and truly brought back to life with some TLC, elbow grease and of course some extra funds. The Yard will take a few weekends to fix – ideal for a visionary gardener with 2 water tanks and scheme water connected. If this looks like it could be meant for you, we are available to take you through and do the deal today! Zoned Residential - R5, Power, Generator switch over point, Scheme Water, Septic + 2 Water tanks. (the house is clad with brick look panel - this is not real brick)
