With privacy screening at the front of the home and bushland behind, 79 Ridley Street is set back from the road as it runs through the historic town of Cuballing. Along Great Southern Highway, it is just 15 minutes from the shops, services and schools located in the central Wheatbelt town of Narrogin. Inside, the kitchen with corner pantry is open to a meals area and a generous sized living room. Along the central hallway are three bedrooms, two with built in wardrobes. The toilet is separate to the bathroom. With such a straightforward and functional floor plan, there is loads of potential for a cosmetic lift. Outside, a verandah along the Western side of the house doubles as a car port. There is a small storage shed behind the house and the established trees on the property take the hard work out of weekends. Currently rented with vacant possession available at settlement if it is required. Those looking for a home country feel at an affordable price, or investors looking for a solid return are invited to view 79 Ridley St Cuballing, call Sandra Hortin, Elders Real Estate Rural Narrogin on 0487316906 for viewing times.
