

797 Numinbah Rd, Crystal Creek, NSW 2484

Sold House

Friday, 27 October 2023

797 Numinbah Rd, Crystal Creek, NSW 2484

Bedrooms: 4

Bathrooms: 2

Parkings: 2

Area: 5746 m2

Type: House

Paul Leslight
0400304287

Contact agent

Escape to the picturesque countryside and discover this hidden gem just 10 minutes from Murwillumbah in the beloved village of Crystal Creek. Experience the tranquillity of rural living in this remarkable 100+-year-old home, exquisitely presented to capture the essence of country charm. Step inside to find hardwood polished timber floors, 13-foot ceilings, and ornate wood turned entrances that bathe the interiors in natural light. With four spacious bedrooms on the first level and a charming loft with a Juliet balcony, this home offers ample space for comfortable living. Stay cozy with reverse cycle air conditioning, ceiling fans, and a wood heater in the main living area. Indulge in relaxation in the ensuite bathroom featuring a clawfoot bath and serene views of the surrounding landscape. The expansive grounds span across 5746m², inviting you to embrace self-sufficiency. Cultivate your own veggie patch and enjoy the harvest from established fruit trees. The lovingly landscaped gardens frame the inviting saltwater pool, while the fabulous undercover entertainment area ensures outdoor living can be enjoyed year-round. Don't miss this unique opportunity to experience the charm of country living and self-sufficiency. Contact us today to schedule an inspection and make this captivating property your own.