Welcome to 7A Charles East Street, Midland, a home where modern convenience and style converge for worry-free living. This inviting lot is the front unit of four on a strata block that attracts no strata fees. Location is everything, and 7A Charles East Street does not disappoint. The home situates you at the heart of one of Midland's most charming streets, surrounded by modern housing, positioned uniquely for easy access to Reid Highway and Roe Highway, as well as sub 30-minute routes into Perth City. Your commute will be effortlessly comfortable. The villa has a wonderful street appeal. It boasts a security system, an easily accessible double secure garage that has a well-sized utility recess to the East and a direct entrance to the unit. Experience the charm of connected living with a spacious open-plan lounge, kitchen, and dining area that elegantly streams out to your private courtyard, making it your perfect entertainment hub. A large separate laundry space is conveniently located off the dishwasher-equipped kitchen. It comes with the added benefit of separate courtyard access, making your daily chores a breeze. Relax in one of its three good-size bedrooms -- all of which have built-in robes -- or freshen up in the spacious semi-ensuite bathroom, equipped with a bath and shower; adjacent to which can be found a separate toilet. An abundance of storage is available, all planned to reduce clutter and optimize your living space. Embrace the convenience of low-maintenance living with easy-care finishes complemented by thoughtfully landscaped gardens. With well serviced public transport routes within 300m, every retail outlet you could want within 2km, as well as a 15 minute drive to the airport, you can experience balanced living at its best at 7A Charles East Street.
