Surround yourself with panoramic views and low-maintenance spaciousness in an ultra-convenient location, with schools, shops and public transport close by. Opposite Peterson Street Reserve and walking distance to supermarkets and convenience stores, this three-bedroom and study/guest-bedroom home excels with a family-size interior, effortless upkeep, and sports and leisure spaces on your doorstep. It's a brilliant home for a relaxed Bayside lifestyle, with a large north-facing family room opening out to courtyard garden spaces and an upstairs retreat ideal for kids to have their own space or working from home. Tick off your new home wish-list with a big kitchen and butler's pantry with additional sink all designed around a large dining bench and Smeg appliances, big views to wake up to from the main bedroom, a deck surrounded by greenery, and a ground-floor study/fourth bedroom. All the quality essentials are in place, including a twin-basin ensuite and family bathroom with a freestanding bath, linear slot air conditioning and a gas fireplace, two-car garage with additional storage space, oak floors, video security entry and alarm system. Convenient address with St Agnes' Primary School at the end of the street and Sandringham College close by.
