Ultra-convenient inner-city apartment and outstanding investment opportunity!

Situated on the third floor of this low maintenance brick and tile apartment complex is the ideal property for first home buyers, property enthusiasts and investors alike.

The apartment greets you with a warm and cozy loungeroom that connects to a covered balcony that is great for enjoying a morning tea or coffee. A timber sliding door separates the open plan living space from the functional kitchen that boasts gas cooking, dishwasher and ample storage space. Also includes two good sized bedrooms, a central functional bathroom and an undercover car park that is easily accessible from the apartment.

The apartment is just a short walk to Brunner road's variety of local shops, great schools, Adamstown Bowling Club, Merewether Golf Club & only a few short minutes away from Newcastle's picturesque beaches.

This easy-care and low maintenance apartment is one of only 9 in a very well maintained complex that makes it the perfect lifestyle for all types of buyers.

An opportunity not to be missed and a chance to establish yourself in the sought after location of Adamstown!
