For those in pursuit of the ultimate bayside lifestyle, this updated apartment in a boutique block stands out. Its coveted location on the border of Acland and Blessington Streets situates you at the core of a vibrant community, with the beach, public transport, and the St Kilda Botanical Gardens just a leisurely stroll away. A display of immaculate presentation, the interior seamlessly blends timeless charm with contemporary style, featuring a spacious living and dining room centered around a gas fireplace. Across the hallway, the kitchen is equipped with a stainless-steel oven, gas cooktop, and dishwasher set against a backdrop of subway tile splashbacks. The crisp white cabinetry is beautifully complemented by timber benchtops, and the continuity of warm-toned floorboards throughout creates an inviting and cohesive atmosphere. The two bedrooms are adorned with built-in robes, and the bathroom includes a shower-over-bath setup. Step outside to the balcony, an additional feature offering the convenience of laundry facilities alongside the pleasure of outdoor comfort. The property also includes the essential addition of a car space, making it a comprehensive lifestyle package. Whether as a move-in-ready home or a savvy investment, this residence in a sought-after bayside location is certain to leave a lasting impression.
