This corner position, light filled, breezy apartment in the quiet, boutique apartment is ticking all those important desired and liveability must haves. The open plan layout, high ceilings, extensive windows and neutral palette expands the space delivering a feeling of calm, privacy and peace. And if you like to entertain there are the all important balconies (main off the living area with city views) to escape to while you savour with a wine or two. Privately positioned in Lever Street, you are mere footsteps to the vibrant Albion restaurants/cafes and shopping precincts. It's a simple five minute walk to Albion train station for your short, cost saving commute to the city. There's a myriad of transport connections for you to tap into. And if greenspace is your thing then saunter a few minutes down to Crosby Park and you pick up a coffee at the local coffee stores and Collingwood market.
