Generous proportions and a sun-splashed interior create an inviting feel within this two bedroom apartment on the elevated north/east corner of a gracious, boutique building of just twelve. Conveniently situated in a cul-de-sac between Fawkner Park and Royal Botanic Gardens, enjoy quiet privacy from this light-filled haven comprising two spacious bedrooms featuring built in robes, lounge/dining with large windows and electric panel heating, spotless separate kitchen with gas cooktop and an endearing bathroom with bath. With the bonus of a secure entrance, off street carpark on title, brand new carpets, fresh paint, onsite laundry facilities plus a wonderfully convenient location moments from local cafes and shops on Domain and Toorak Roads with a short stroll to South Yarra Station, trams and Chapel Street, this outstanding home offers a rare opportunity to enter this tightly held district.
