Set back from the road at the quiet rear of its boutique block, this top floor apartment offers a peaceful sanctuary just steps from The Spot. Originally a three-bedroom apartment converted for additional living space, there's scope to readjust according to your needs. A north-east aspect bathes the interiors in natural light, with this generously sized apartment offering fresh interiors that retain stylish retro influences. Centrally located, the apartment is placed a walk to eateries, cocktail bars, Ritz cinemas and the Prince of Wales Hospital precinct, with Coogee Beach beckoning only minutes away.

- Updated kitchen features sleek Smeg appliances and a gas stove
- Designated living and dining spaces with floorboards throughout
- Eastern balcony off the living area with a lush bamboo backdrop
- Good-sized two-bedroom or convert for added accommodation
- Retro bathroom features tessellated tiling and an adjoining WC
- Rear access (via Puck Lane) to a carport
- Air-conditioning, common laundry, potential to add internal laundry
- Boutique block of 8 with intercom and landscaped garden paths
