With the easy-care appeal of a warehouse loft apartment and the convenience & space that modern families require, this fabulous two-storey residence is bound to tick all the right boxes for a huge array of discerning buyers. In a prized pocket of Flemington, where a host of lifestyle attractions and essential amenities are all readily at hand, this low maintenance 3-bedroom, 2-bathroom home is simply brimming with standout inclusions. Filled with natural sunlight and warmth - with an open staircase allowing sunshine to cascade across both levels - accommodation includes a lower-level entertaining zone and broad alfresco terrace along with a sophisticated gourmet kitchen with quality appliances and lots of cupboard space. All three bedrooms are of generous proportions and can be found on the home's second floor, including the ensuited master with walk-in robe and city-view balcony. A bright main bathroom is also offered, while a dedicated study is perfect for students or those working from home. Enhanced by glossy hardwood floors and chic warehouse-style windows, the home also offers a European-style laundry, ample storage, secure intercom entry and parking space. Flemington Primary, Mount Alexander College and Debney's Park are all close by, while Royal Park, Flemington Racecourse and the CBD are all within easy reach. This prized address is also blessed with easy access to the University of Melbourne, RMIT, the Queen Victoria Market and so much more!
