Ideal for the urbanite who desires a sense of sanctuary, this tranquil garden apartment is secluded to the peaceful and private rear of Shannon Court on the edge of Randwick town centre. Away from the hustle and bustle but reassuringly close to the action, the oversized two-bedroom apartment is set at the top end of a parkside cul-de-sac just 500m to Belmore Road's shopping village and 400m to the Wansley Road light rail. Offered to the market for the first time, the two-bedroom apartment's freshly schemed interiors, well-conceived layout and all-weather entertainer's loggia combine to present an ideal low-maintenance home in the heart of a thriving village community. Featuring access to a lush common garden and a lock-up garage on title, this boutique hideaway is 800m to the UNSW campus and within easy reach of The Spot and Coogee Beach.

- Spacious layout and direct access to a tranquil garden
- 2 double bedrooms, large main with a wall of built-ins
- Spacious living and dining, covered entertainer's terrace
- New stone-topped kitchen with integrated appliances
- Renovated bathroom and a full-size internal laundry
- Reverse cycle air, lock-up garage, near-level access
- Well-managed double-brick block with affordable levies
- Top end of a quiet cul-de-sac leading to Writtle Park
- 700m to Royal Randwick Shopping Centre and Coles
- Walk down to Centennial Park, jump on the bus to Coogee
