From this highly desirable address, you're within strolling distance of Berringa Park and Bardon Park, perched on the river's edge, inviting you to follow the scenic Tony di Scerni Pathway. Imagine having such beauty at the end of your street. This two-bedroom, one-bathroom villa is the ideal investment. Not only is it move-in ready and metres from the Swan River, but you're also a short stroll away from Mayland's renowned tourist precinct, brimming with bars, cafes and boutiques. Supermarkets, specialty stores, the RISE recreation centre, Maylands Yacht Club, buses and the Maylands Train Station are easily reached on foot. Spacious open-plan living and dining are enhanced by the modern kitchen and a private courtyard ideal for entertaining and relaxation. You'll appreciate the generous room sizes, bamboo flooring and neutral décor suiting most furnishings. Other highlights include split-system air-conditioning, security screens and a separate laundry. You'll lock and leave this property in the knowledge that it'll be secure within this quiet and well-maintained complex, holding pride of place with a street frontage and dedicated carport. Downsizers, professionals, first-home buyers, FIFO workers and students will love the convenience of being close to the city, Edith Cowan University and the Perth Airport. This won't remain on the market for long. So don't hesitate to contact John Caputo on 0433 158 384 to arrange a viewing today.
