$290,000 - $319,000

On offer is this fantastic brick 2-bedroom unit located in a prime and highly sought-after area. This home could be perfect for an affordable first home, retiree opportunity or a step into the rental market with a strong return of $300 - $330 per week. You'll love the well-designed layout of the open plan kitchen/living space, along with a single garage and a neat outdoor area. One of the standout features of this property is its proximity to essential amenities. You're just a stone's throw away from the hospital, chemist, grocery shopping and public transport facilities. Along with an affordable price point, the central location and easy access to key amenities makes it a highly attractive option for a number of buyers.
