The quintessential coastal pad designed for easy living, this brilliant apartment expresses casual elegance atop a boutique block of nine. From this height, the top-floor position governs impressive views of the sea and city skyline. This is an inspiring setting to start and end your day, where the elements of natural light and ocean breeze combine to dial up the vitality felt within every space. No.8 also features a double-length balcony that faces the sea. Finished with timber parquet floors, the classic design features a separate lounge and kitchen, plus two sizable bedrooms quietly set at the rear of residence. The huge lock-up garage with storage is also a rare find in this location. This apartment's raw attributes and location benefits will raise the interest of discerning home-seekers and investors, eager to possess an asset this close to the sand and surf. Welcome home to an ever-popular location with superb amenities, coastal walks and a dynamic and evolving café, restaurant and entertainment scene.
