Spanning an impressive 101 sqm (approx), this treasured Art Deco apartment assures spacious comfort alongside the benefit of access to two distinct communal outdoor areas. Only one level up is the chic rooftop entertaining area bathed in sunshine, while the garden provides a serene sanctuary at the rear of the building. Tightly held since 2001, this apartment is superbly maintained, presenting elegant period-style carpet and one-hundred-year-old tessellated tiling. Several highlights include the green outlooks from the living/dining area, and the tranquil garden view from the master bedroom. Close to the building is a shortcut to Bellevue Hill Public School, Cooper Park and the village, while Bondi Junction's vibrant commercial centre and Bondi's beachside attractions are both within walking distance.
