As you walk in your breath will be taken away, exactly like mine was when first viewed. Filled with light and brand new, never been lived in, it would be an absolute pleasure to live here indeed. Construction is now complete, and we are looking for lovely tenants to move in and make this home their own. The garage is automated and has porcelain floor tiles should you decide that as you live so close to the CBD you really do not need to have a car and can use as a room? The study behind the garage is a grand size, with an adjoining bathroom and alfresco area. Working from home? Each floor will delight with its elegance and quality. Floorboards and tiling throughout. Enjoy all the storage, the two quality bathrooms – and yes, there is a bath for after the long days at work or the kiddies. Robes and storage will not be a problem here due to all the storage options and robes in each room, master bedroom having a walk in robe – of course! Lofty ceilings, square set these are quality builds indeed with loftiness, airiness, warmth and a beautiful ambiance in a brand new home that would be an absolute pleasure to live in. The kitchen will make you gasp due to the quality stainless steel Euro, brand new, appliances, and a 900mm gas cook top! Double glazed windows with all walls between these homes solid cement for sound proofing. Reverse cycle ducted air conditioning throughout. Love the views obtained from the second and third floors. Have a close look at the floor plan and note how the floor plan can be utilised for your own individual living arrangements. Lovely outlook to the Adeliade Hills and yes, a small view of the CBD! You want to live brand new in an elegant, light filled home, close to the CBD with stunning views, then this is a home for you!
