$415,000

A renovated top floor 2 bedroom unit in Cooroy township. This spacious unit features new everything, kitchen, bathroom, air-conditioning and paint. Being part of a small block of 10 units and convenient location allows for an easy walk to all that Cooroy has to offer. There is off street undercover parking and a reserve on one boundary. The obvious highlight of this unit is the price, who would have thought that property of this value was still available this close to all that is Noosa and with the standard of finish on display here. First home buyers, investors, or the individual who just wants a place to call home, should explore this opportunity.
