Embrace the opportunity to seize this inviting home for yourself - there's no need to hesitate to enter the market. This residence offers the perfect blend of features, ensuring a comfortable and delightful living experience. Bask in the warm and cheerful ambiance provided by the sunny aspect of this two-bedroom villa unit. The fully fenced yard strikes the ideal balance, offering ample space without being overwhelming. Inside, you'll discover new carpet, built-in wardrobes in both bedrooms, a separate bathroom and toilet, an open-plan living and dining area, and a conveniently located separate laundry off the kitchen. Take control of the indoor climate with the reverse cycle air conditioner, while the carport at the backdoor provides hassle-free undercover unloading, sheltered from the elements. Enhance your lifestyle with additional features such as a storage shed, a spacious yard perfect for entertaining, and ample room for your four-legged companion. Consider adding a vegetable patch or expanding the existing gardens to make it your own. The property's proximity to public transport, supermarkets, schools, shops, and services is a notable convenience, all within a short, easy walk on flat terrain. Don't miss out on this fabulous opportunity - contact me now to schedule your private inspection and make this appealing home your very own.
