This stunning updated art deco apartment exudes the understated elegance of its graceful past while boasting a private and quiet North East aspect. Set far back from Edgecliff Road, overlooking Hawthornden Mansion, this property is deceptively quiet. Nestled on the top floor of boutique 1920s 'Claverton' you will enjoy its sophisticated palate, boasting plush new carpet, freshly painted interiors and sprawling views across Woollahra. From the moment you step inside this home, you revel in the expansive interiors, ample storage and natural light. From the foyer to the living room, through stunning french doors you will delight in the spacious living area with oversized floor to ceiling windows, looking across Woollahra. Stylish and well-appointed white kitchen with dishwasher, brand new oven, rangehood and gas cooktop. Generous master bedroom with floor to ceiling wardrobes and new blinds. Oversized second bedroom flanked with windows and stunning views. Ample 3rd bedroom with floor ceiling wardrobes and leafy vista. Two generous bathrooms, each with a bath, shower and toilet. Separate laundry with direct access to rear stairs. Three linen cupboards in the hallway and two cupboards within the foyer. Dual access via Roslyndale Avenue and Edgecliff Rd. Perfectly positioned just 400m to Woollahra Public School, within walking distance to Queen Street Village, Edgecliff train station/shops, Double Bay, Cooper Park, and Westfield Bondi Junction.
