More like a terrace than a townhouse, this home is simply enchanting with its impeccably renovated interiors, versatile tri-storey floor plan and expansive level garden ideal for kids, pets and divine alfresco entertaining. It offers contemporary-style living with an abundance of character, as every care has been taken to ensure elegance and luxury at every turn. The thoughtfully renovated kitchen services the living/dining room that flows effortlessly out to the garden. The top floor is perfect as a third bedroom or casual living retreat. Balconies jut out from the main and second bedrooms. It's impressively peaceful while being enviably placed within a five-minute stroll to Cammeray village eateries, Cammeray Square Shopping Mall and an off-leash dog park. All the cosmopolitan attractions of Crows Nest and North Sydney are within a fifteen-minute walk, as well as numerous top local public and private schools. • Living/dining room with timber floors, electric fireplace and a custom bookcase • Kitchen with stone bench tops, gas stainless steel appliances and an integrated dishwasher • Kitchen also with integrated Fisher Paykel fridge and oven, top-of-the-line range hood, plenty of storage • Generous main bedroom with walk-in robe, sumptuous ensuite and a balcony • Deluxe fully tiled bathrooms, main with a bathtub, split-system air conditioning • Versatile top floor bedroom retreat, casual living space or superb home office • Security entrance, double side-by-side garage, built-in shelves for good storage • Walk to Anzac Park Public, North Sydney Boys, Wenona and other top schools • Five-minute stroll to the popular Maggio's Cafe, great restaurants and cool bars • Easy commute to North Sydney or the CBD within 5 – 15 minutes by bus or car
