

8/41-43 Harker Street, Sunbury, Vic 3429

Sold House

Thursday, 9 November 2023

8/41-43 Harker Street, Sunbury, Vic 3429

Bedrooms: 2

Bathrooms: 1

Parkings: 1

Type: House

Jason Sheridan
0397442555

Matthew Makin
0412876412

Contact agent

Discover absolute serenity with this charming two-bedroom brick villa unit, privately positioned to the rear of a meticulously maintained boutique block. Newly carpeted and generously proportioned, the home is instantly inviting, with its north-facing lounge, bathing the space in natural light. Lovely flowing interiors create easy interaction between the large kitchen which offers plenty of counter space and storage, and the sizeable adjoining meals area. Outside, a fully fenced courtyard garden provides a private oasis for relaxation. Both bedrooms feature built-in robes, with the main bedroom boasting a bay window for added character. The pristine bathroom offers a separate bath and shower for your convenience. Parking will never be an issue with a single car garage, additional driveway parking, and a shared 3rd parking space. And for those seeking a retreat, a luscious secret garden awaits – a communal space with beautiful mature trees perfect for picnics or summer gatherings. Additional features include external awnings, an internal laundry, Vulcan wall heater, and a linen press. The location speaks volumes, situated on the cusp of Sunbury's vibrant village cafés, shopping precinct, pubs, and restaurants, and within 1km of Sunbury train station, 488 bus services, beautiful parks, and walking tracks. Ideal for first-time homeowners, downsizers, or investors, this is a unique opportunity to make this peaceful township retreat your own.