A minimalist ground floor entry and up the stairs are a taste of what is to come and once inside you can throw away the checklist because this is it! A superbly renovated and presented, top floor front, north facing 2 bedroom with desired open living for today and beyond. With timber floors, balcony, carparking and an abundance of light it features a cook's dream kitchen, big, bold and designed with porcelain finishes, sparkling bathroom, separate wc and the best of new double glazed European style windows. And in so far as position goes, central, picturesque and an easy walk to Elwood village, Acland Street, the gardens, the beach, transport and more.
