Situated moments from Gosford Train Station and the public hospital in a quiet complex, this two-bedroom double brick apartment is an ideal entry level unit or investment opportunity. The unit has just had brand new carpet installed, giving in a fresh updated feel. The living area opens out to the private balcony, and the kitchen has an electric cooktop. Both bedrooms are a good size, with the main having a built-in robe. The bathroom has a bath, shower and separate toilet and there is undercover parking for one car. The close proximity to public transport including train and bus ensures this apartment would suit those looking to commute or walk to Gosford CBD and its amenities.
