Nestled in a coveted location between Bay Street and the shoreline, this surprising villa boasting two bedrooms is a captivating display of top notch ingenuity. This stylish dwelling offers a spacious living and dining area filled with natural light streaming through a large wall of windows. The modern polished kitchen features stainless steel appliances while two generous bedrooms with built in wardrobes, a glistening white bathroom with separate toilet, and a tranquil alfresco courtyard with decking complete this remarkable home. With timber floorboards, a full sized laundry, and luxurious gardens, every detail has been carefully curated in this remarkable villa. The residence is equipped with a split system, a handy garden shed and a convenient carport. Offering an exceptional lifestyle, residents can enjoy the renowned cafés, international restaurants, and essential shopping options along Bay Street and New Street. Elite educational institutions such as Firbank Grammar, Brighton Grammar, and Brighton Primary School are within reach, as well as convenient transportation via local buses and North Brighton station. Not to mention the breathtaking beauty of Kamesburgh Gardens and the unparalleled beaches along Brighton's Golden Mile, all contributing to an extraordinary living experience.
