Located only a 5-minute drive from all Rosedale has to offer this great family home is situated in the sought after area of Ashton court and boasts ample room to live and grow on this approximately 2.5-acre lifestyle property. The home features 4 bedrooms a huge open plan living and family area with a separate kitchen and dining area that opens onto an outdoor entertaining space and childrens play area. The home does need some updating to give a fresh modern look, but it is so solid and well built that any updates will only add value to the property, all while making your home open and bright with the land to move and grow. There is a large shed and garage and plenty of space to add on anything your heart desires. Finding small acreage with a home is getting harder and harder to find, especially so close to town. Stop searching for acreage and trying to get building permits, this one is ready to make your own. The land is fertile and flat, perfect for a horse lover, some chooks and veggie gardens. Rosedale is a flourishing small town only a 25-minute drive to both the larger townships of Traralgon and Sale and has fantastic boutique cafes and shops, sporting facilities, police station and school, a great community township that so many families are now loving to call home.
