Families hopeful to find a home in one of Newcastle's most popular areas will appreciate this wonderful opportunity in a home that is presented beautifully. The lovely street presence is your first impression that is echoed throughout the home with recent updates adding to the charm and appeal that this home radiates. Spacious front living flooded with an abundance of natural light is where you will easily imagine yourself creating family memories and relaxing, capturing peaceful glimpses of the leafy surrounds and further outside living options. Appealing floor plan for families with rear main bedroom boasting bay windows, large walk in robe and ensuite with additional bedrooms all perfectly situated. The central kitchen balances design and function perfectly overlooking the versatile rear air conditioned family and dining ensuring families will thrive in their new home. Outside offers the promise of entertaining and celebrating on a large scale with huge covered North facing alfresco and additional rear decking together with a sunny front courtyard making this a home that embraces all seasons and opportunities. The oversize double garaging with bench provides work space and additional storage together with excellent off street parking. An opportunity presented that should not be overlooked. Inspection Highly Recommended!
