Located in the sought after suburb of Harristown, tucked away and perfectly positioned on a corner block right next to Butt street park is this hidden gem just waiting for it's new family! This beautifully presented, newly renovated property offers a comfortable and convenient lifestyle for families seeking a place to call home. Upon entry, you're greeted by the spacious separate lounge and dining areas, setting the stage for relaxed living. The kitchen serves as a culinary haven, boasting generous bench space, ample storage, and modern appliances, making meal preparation a breeze. There are four newly renovated large bedrooms, all with built-ins and ceiling fans, making a perfect space for a good nights rest. The master bedroom boasts a large walk in robe, stunning modern ensuite and access to the large backyard. Conveniently positioned off the hallway next to the charming bathroom is a dedicated study nook, ideal for quiet productivity. Outdoors is a fantastic location for R&R with the paved and enclosed entertainment area being the perfect location to set up the barbecue. The powered six-bay lockable garage caters to the storage needs for the tradesman of the family. The raised veggie garden is calling to green thumbs, complemented by two rainwater tanks to sustain the large block. The property is also fitted with solar panels to enhance energy efficiency. 8 Blackwood Street is close to everything you need with the Tower Shopping Centre only a short 2-minute walk away and the bonus of having public transport on West street.
