This stunning home offers a functional single-level layout, fantastic finishes and a stunning location backing directly onto Four Mile Creek and is a cracking offering in sought after Warner. This beautiful home features two separate living areas including a sizeable open plan main living/dining area connecting the modern kitchen to the undercover outdoor space. There are 4 large bedrooms inclusive of a master suite with WIR and ensuite bathroom as well as a well appointed study perfect for work at home requirements. The other three bedrooms feature built in cabinetry and share the large main family bathroom which is modern and functional. A two door lockup garage, with attached laundry room, completes the home. Outside you have a large backyard, with built in shed space for all those projects. Enough space to kick a ball around, but not so much that you're mowing for half the day. 8 Bonney Court, Warner, represents a perfect home for families wanting an easy, low-maintenance property in a fantastic location with access to walking tracks and parklands! This beautiful home won't be on the market for long so ensure that it is on your open home schedule this weekend!
