This family home is situated in a sought after location in Windamere Estate. This home is nestled in a Cul-De-Sac and has everything a family could need. Walking through the large timber door you will be greeted with a spacious master bedroom with walk-in robe and ensuite, opposite on either side of the hallway is the study that accesses the garage, zone controlled, ducted air-conditioning. Providing you with excellent separation, you can access the formal living and dining areas with full length windows allowing great light. Towards the back is the hub of the home, the well equipped kitchen with an island bench, dishwasher, electric ceramic stove and loads of storage. This area also includes the family room. The three bedrooms are off this area along with the main bathroom with separate shower and bath. If you love to have family over or enjoy social gathering or just some quiet after a long day, you will thoroughly appreciate the back deck. This space is large and looks over a wonderful view of greenery and space. Features:

- Four bedroom home
- Master with walk-in robe and en-suite
