Perfectly positioned one block from the beach and within walking distance to the delights of Ormond Road, this captivating 3 bedroom residence provides instant lifestyle appeal. Behind the gorgeous facade, Baltic pine floors and high ceilings continue the period allure through the entrance hall to an enchanting bedroom with open fireplace and bay window, 2 further big bedrooms both with built in robes and modern bathroom with separate shower and bath, with the addition of a 2nd powder room. The inviting living with built in entertainment unit and separate dining room served by beautifully renovated kitchen opens out to a private landscaped north facing established garden. In a prized precinct this delightful family home also features ducted heating and cooling, staired attic storage, stunning tessellated tile secure porch and leadlight windows throughout, all behind the secure high picket fence with off street parking.
