Discover timeless charm in the sought-after Caroline Bay area of East Gosford! Nestled amid picturesque cottage gardens, this immaculately presented home was originally built in 1938 and tastefully renovated and extended since, but in-keeping with its period and appealing character features. Enjoy multiple living spaces and a large, modern kitchen with ample storage, perfect for culinary adventures. Step outside to entertain during the warmer months on the expansive deck overlooking the private level backyard and beautifully established gardens then retreat to the cosy sitting room with a gas fireplace on chilly evenings. With high ceilings, ornate cornices and a blend of Blue Gum and Cypress pine flooring, every room tells a story of heritage and elegance. Plantation shutters and ceiling fans throughout bring modern comfort, while stained-glass windows enhance the charm. Superbly located, just moments from the water, privacy is paramount on this large usable block, providing a peaceful sanctuary. Modern bathrooms add a touch of luxury while still having classic features such as a freestanding clawfoot bath. The versatile upstairs room captures breathtaking vistas and could be a 4th bedroom, office or media room. This home would sit comfortably amongst properties on Sydney's North Shore, it is a rare gem waiting to be cherished - one of the last remaining character cottages in this historic neighbourhood.
