New to the market is this great little 2 bedroom house in sought after central location, being close to the school, pool, shops and beach. With plenty of space and minimal neighbours, this property is ideal for people looking to spread out a bit and enjoy their surroundings. This 720sqm block has the potential to be subdivided allowing for two dwellings subject to council approval. The current home has a front patio and a plenty of space in the backyard for all activities, plus there is ample parking for all your vehicles. Inside, the kitchen has an electric stove, open plan design to the living room and the rooms have air conditioners. This property is great for first home buyers or investors wanting a low maintenance property. Currently rented for $550 a week with an increase to $650pw in April. The lease is periodic so vacant possession is possible at settlement. Contact Your Local Onslow Representative Darren Cossill on 0439 931 877 to secure this property.
