Introducing 8 Corang Way, Kelso, QLD, 4815 - an immaculately presented rendered concrete block home with a stylish color bond roof, set on a generous 450 square metre allotment. This property is an exceptional opportunity for first-home buyers and savvy investors alike, boasting three spacious bedrooms, two modern bathrooms, and ample living spaces. The master bedroom features a contemporary ensuite and separate toilet, providing the ultimate privacy and convenience. All bedrooms are well-proportioned, and the main bathroom is both sleek and practical. The automatic double garage carport ensures secure off-street parking for two vehicles. As you step inside, you'll immediately appreciate the fully tiled flooring throughout the property, lending a sense of luxury and durability. The open-plan living and dining area flows seamlessly from the well-appointed kitchen, complete with an electric cooktop, oven, and a wealth of cupboard space. The breakfast bench is perfect for casual meals and entertaining, while the separate media space offers versatility for relaxation or recreation. Outdoor living is a breeze with the beautifully established gardens and lawns front and back, providing a serene backdrop for alfresco dining and weekend barbecues. The separate laundry room with external access adds a further touch of convenience to this delightful property. Currently tenanted until July 2024 at $320 per week, this is an outstanding investment opportunity in the thriving Kelso market.
