Welcome to 8 Cue Street, Youngtown, where 1950s charm meets modern comfort. This delightful weatherboard home invites you in from the outset with its pleasant street presence. The quintessential Australian dream portrayed by the iconic white picket fence, adding a touch of nostalgia and timeless appeal. The flexible floor plan offers up to 4 bedrooms or the option of 3 bedrooms and a study. The heart of the home is an updated and functional kitchen that combines style and practicality. It serves as the hub of the house, seamlessly flowing into the open plan dining and lounge areas. The rear of the home has had a considerable extension a few years ago that offers a house size that will be a pleasant surprise. The property boasts two bathrooms, one as an ensuite to the main bedroom & the other featuring a large spa. With a fresh coat of paint throughout, the home radiates a sense of freshness and renewal, making it a blank canvas ready for you to personalise and make your own. Outside, the spacious entertaining deck is a true gem, inviting you to unwind and soak up the warm afternoon sun. The secure yard is low maintenance, providing a safe place for children and pets to play freely. Situated in a great location, this home offers easy access to local schools, the nearby Youngtown Oval, and the amenities of Kings Meadows, just minutes away. Enjoy the convenience of living in a peaceful neighbourhood while having everything you need within reach. In summary, 8 Cue Street is a charming family home with its flexible floor plan, updated features and convenient location situated in a quiet culdesac, this property is an opportunity not to be missed.
