This property will be sold @ In Room Auction: Tuesday 26th March 2024 @ 6pm, Ray White Office, 19 Monaro Street, Queanbeyan NSW. Located in a quiet street and on a low maintenance block, this home is larger than it looks. As you enter this 5 bedroom home, you will see the space it offers the family. With three living areas, there is space for the entire family. The front of the home features a formal lounge room, then as you flow through the home you will enter the heart of this home with a open plan family room and kitchen, that over looks the back yard and covered entertaining area. Just off the kitchen is what could be a kids play room/ office or could even be a 5th bedroom for those larger families. There is space for all the family. The master bedroom, with ensuite and full wall wardrobe is located at the rear of the property, with all other bedrooms larger in size and feature built in robes and a three way bathroom, making the morning routine just a little bit easier for the family. With ducted gas heating and evaporative cooling, you will be comfortable year round. The home also features water tanks with a new pump, make the home more water efficient. The home has been repainted throughout, recarpeted and even the lawn has been redressed, making it ready for someone to call it home! Contact Brad O'Mara on 0402343771 to arrange a viewing or call in to one of the open homes.
