This charming seaside home offers more than first meets the eye! A perfect blend of modern living and a tranquil coastal lifestyle. There are few homes we see that offer such appeal along with the location that truly gives value to your lifestyle. Within a short approx. 100m walk to the beach access and beautiful bush views from almost every window in the home. Beautifully renovated kitchen and bathrooms, new floor and window coverings and freshly painted throughout. There are 3 good size bedrooms including a lovely light filled main bedroom with loads of wardrobe space, a second bedroom with built in robes and deck access and a third bedroom with built in robes. The beautiful modern kitchen has been perfectly renovated with stone benchtops, tiled splashback and island bench. Open plan dining and living area are complimented by the new large rear deck for outdoor living. The back yard is large enough for the pets or a few vegies.. Further features include the lock up garage with plenty of storage under the home and extra off street parking, 2 x Air Con and high ceilings. You will no doubt spend plenty of time on the rear deck with views of the bush and the summer breezes, a perfect relaxation space. Peace and quiet is what this east side home offers as there are only a handful of homes in this quiet little street in a lovely pocket of town. Don't miss out on this fantastic opportunity to own a renovated family home in the sought-after suburb of Nambucca Heads. Call Narelle 0435 054625 or Craig 0412 080 287 today to arrange a private inspection and start living the coastal lifestyle you've always dreamed of.
